

The Building Buzz

It's amazing that summer is already drawing to a close and kids will be back in school next week. 2012 is certainly flying by

Since the beginning of the year, pool cabana - creating heavy timber obstacles for the Met Con Blue Mountain Adventure Race - a 26' x 36' Dovetail log home. Add a few heavy timber trusses into the mix and work beginning on 2 upcoming Hybrid homes along with the odd timber project and we're kept hopping! We're never the range of projects my team & I have undertaken couldn't have been more varied - a 2,190 sq. ft. dovetail log home - an 8' x 12' Hybrid too busy to discuss your project - just let us know how we can help! Enjoy the rest of your summer & we'll catch up towards the end of the year! Milan Smeh

The Blue Mountains

Barry's Bay - Day 2

A "Dove-Tale" The dovetail log profile is still as popular as ever. From the Blue Mountains to Barry's Bay and back, our clients love the rustic look of their log homes-handcrafted and installed by our expert team. They also love the fact that we offer a complete log home package. Give us a call or drop us a line to find out how your log home can be Legendary.

S & J & family are frequent visitors to the Georgian Triangle. They knew it made sense to create a country retreat (photos to the left) for their four season lifestyle and to just "get away from it all" - and we're certainly glad they did!

Met Con Blue Extreme Mud Run & Adventure Race

Another slam dunk for the Legendary Group - building log & Hybrid obstacles for the first ever Met Con Blue Adventure Race at Blue Mountain on June 2nd, 2012.

The race is an excellent opportunity for us to support business in our local community, promote health & fitness, support our troops and generally have a good time.

It's great to "build outside the box" every now & again.
